A FIGURE OF LOVE
BOOK #2 $35.00 TRADE P/BACK
Gareth Lockheart is one of the richest men in England, but it will take more than money for the reclusive eccentric to gain entrance into the corridors of power; it will also take a proper country estate and an aristocratic wife with impeccable connections. Gareth is determined to find the right woman the same way he does everything in his life: using logic and mathematics. Serena Lombard might be the widow of a duke's son, but she's always existed on the ton's fringes. The French émigré has worked hard to create a secure home for her son and has struggled to establish herself as a respected sculptor and landscape gardener. Gareth should have known doing business with a woman would be a mistake, especially an unorthodox, opinionated, and far too appealing French woman who manages to destroy his ability to concentrate without even trying. Serena loves the project the industrialist has hired her to do; it's too bad the man himself is so remote. Not to mention distracting, and utterly captivating. The only thing the two opposites can agree on is that they should avoid becoming entangled with one another.

Elliot's proposition is a subterfuge, for he hopes to capture Nina's hand—and her dowry—by shly seducing her himself.
